

Saugus River Watershed Council

ANNUAL MEETING & DINNER

Tuesday, 30 November 2010, 6:30 - 9:00 p.m.
Hilltop Steakhouse, Saugus

Keynote Presentation: Climate Change in New England

Please join the Saugus River Watershed Council and friends for our annual meeting and delicious buffet dinner at the Hilltop Steakhouse, Route 1 South, Saugus.

Keynote Presentation: Kevin Knobloch, President of the Union of Concerned Scientists, will discuss the potential impact of climate change in New England and across the globe. Kevin has led delegations from the Union of Concerned Scientists to the United Nations International Climate negotiations in Montreal in 2005, Bali in 2007, Poznan in 2008, and Copenhagen in 2009. He is also co-chair of the Climate and Energy Committee for the Green Group, a coalition of CEOs from 32 national environmental organizations.

Please join us to honor this year's River Stewardship Award winners. Teacher Donna Whelan and students from her 4th grade class at the Brickett Elementary School in Lynn will be honored for their ongoing efforts to promote water conservation. The annual meeting will also include a brief update about the Council's accomplishments during 2010 and election of officers and board members. This event is open to the general public. RSVP early to reserve space.

Online registration and payment available at www.saugusriver.org

This event is part of the Saugus River Watershed Council's Climate Change Awareness Program, funded in part by the Massachusetts Environmental Trust.
